Mr. Scott A. Durfee
General Counsel
Office of the District Attorney
Harris County

Houston, Texas 77002-1901

OR96-1190

Dear Mr. Durfee:

Your predecessor has asked whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 22854.

The Harris County District Attorney (the "district attorney") received a request for a copy of all available information and a copy of the file styled State of Texas v. Regina Hutchinson, Case No. 664331. You claim that the requested information is excepted from disclosure by sections 552.101, 552.103, 552.108, and 552.111 of the Government Code.

Section 552.108 excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime," and "[a]n internal record or notation of a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that is maintained for internal use in matters relating to law enforcement or prosecution." Gov't Code § 552.108; see Holmes v. Morales, 39 Tex. Sup. Ct. J. 781, 1996 WL 325601 (June 14, 1996). We note, however, that information normally found on the front page of an offense report is generally considered public.¹ Houston Chronicle Publishing Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.--Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976); Open Records Decision

¹The content of the information determines whether it must be released in compliance with Houston Chronicle, not its literal location on the first page of an offense report. Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) contains a summary of the types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle.

No. 127 (1976). We conclude that, except for front page offense report information, section 552.108 of the Government Code excepts the closed files from required public disclosure.

We are resolving this matter with an informal letter ruling rather than with a published open records decision. This ruling is limited to the particular records at issue under the facts presented to us in this request and should not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records. If you have questions about this ruling, please contact our office.

Yours very truly,
